

FORMIDABLE COACHING INSTITUTE STUDENT AGREEMENT

I understand that coaching is NOT A FORM OF THERAPY although coaching may be used in conjunction with therapy.

I understand that through our coaching classes we will be learning about HOW TO BECOME A LIFE COACH.

I understand that I am training with FORMIDABLE COACHING INSTITUTE.

I understand that my instructor/mentor, is not a medical doctor and thus not able to give medical (mental or physical) advice from a medical standpoint.

I understand that all coaching payments/services are non-refundable.

I understand I am responsible for the long-distance calls when I connect onto a tele-class bridge line.

I understand that I will receive class materials and other information in my e-mail.

I give FORMIDABLE COACHING INSTITUTE and trainers permission to send me e-mail.

I understand that I will not give away any materials within the program (unless licensed to do so).

I understand that I will not sell any materials within the program.

I understand that I will be a certified coach upon completion of this program, assuming I meet the requirements as stated by this company.

I understand that what we discuss during classes is confidential, unless I indicate, in anyway, that I would harm myself or others, then the proper authorities will be notified.

I understand that my instructor/mentor does not control the direction of my studies, career, and/or my life. Only God above and I do that.

I understand that my instructor/mentor qualifications are as follows: Certified Life Coach Trainer through the International Instruction of Coaching studies (IICS).

I understand that as of this date, as stated on my contract with FCI, this program, if taught live in person or via tele-class counts toward coach-specific hours that can be used when applying for my ACC, PCC or MCC status through the International Coaching Federation. You or your trainer can verify this as accurate by opening the Portfolio applications on the ICF for the various accrediting you are seeking:

ACC, PCC or MCC.

I understand that the coach, coach trainer, instructing and training you, or whose company this is, is not responsible if the International Coaching Federation changes the policy after the above date.

I understand that I do not need ICF accrediting to coach, unless otherwise stated by my government.

This program contains 60 amount of live training hours.

This program, company and instructor can change their policies at any time.
